CHILDREN'S LAW CENTER

Children's Law Center is a leading advocate for more than 5,000 DC children each year.

Through individual and city-wide advocacy, we address the urgent family, health and education needs of children while creating lasting solutions to complex societal challenges.

In partnership with children and families – and together with the support of donors, government officials, community partners and pro bono leaders – we are improving the lives of children today and strengthening our community for a brighter future.

Use this journal to capture your thoughts – or keep track of your day-to-day tasks! As you fill each page, know that you are making a difference in the lives of children and families.

[My lawyers] walked me through, step-by-step, what we needed to do and what information would make the process easier. And in doing so, it was the first time since I lost my sister that I felt like there was hope.

Ms. Robertson

The mold started to grow in my boys’ room, and rashes began to appear on their body. After Children’s Law Center started to help us, the building owner was finally responsive. The boys feel so much better now. They are so happy to sleep in their own beds again.

– Ms. Jurado

Parents don't have time to go through and read every clause in every booklet. My lawyer made sure I knew the right questions to ask before each school meeting. With Children's Law Center, I know my voice and opinion matter.

- Ms. Eury

When my Children's Law Center lawyer helped me, I got to slow down, be a little calmer. She was hearing me out, working through it, and I knew I could let her do the work. Sometimes you've got to put it into the advocate's hands.

– Ms. Harrington
