

A Quarter Century of Impact

Celebrating Judith Sandalow's 25 Years of Visionary Leadership and Innovation

Judith Sandalow is celebrating 25 years as CEO of Children's Law Center. Join us in recognizing all she has accomplished and how her transformative vision continues to inspire and drive meaningful change for thousands of children and families.

During her tenure, Judith has pioneered innovative solutions to expanding access to justice, including:

1. Improving representation of children in foster care through a novel contract with DC Courts.
2. Expanding the organization to include policy advocacy, program evaluation and impact litigation.
3. Starting one of the first medical-legal partnerships in the nation.
4. Leading groundbreaking program evaluation, which convinced a local Medicaid managed care organization to sign a first-in-the-nation contract to fund legal services.

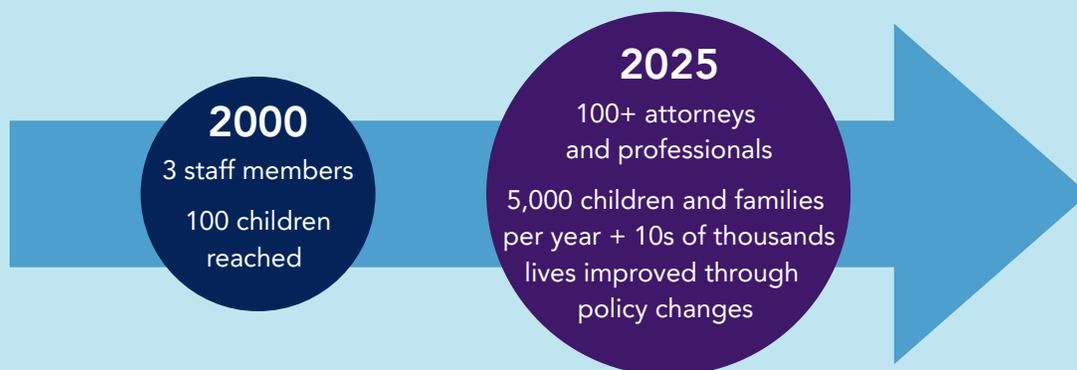

Distinguished Recognition

Judith has received numerous awards for her impact, including:

- The American Bar Association's 2020 John Minor Wisdom Public Service and Professionalism Award for outstanding contributions to the quality of justice.
- The D.C. Bar's Thurgood Marshall Award recognizing extraordinary commitment to pursuing equal justice.
- The Meyer Foundation Exponent Award recognizing effective nonprofit leaders with a track record of accomplishment.

Expanding Reach, Deepening Impact

Under Judith's exceptional leadership, Children's Law Center has expanded its reach, driving systemic change that has positively impacted tens of thousands of children and families.

Join Us in These Celebration Efforts!

TRIBUTE BOOK

We will produce a yearbook-style publication that honors Judith's remarkable contributions. The book will include personalized messages from donors, colleagues and others whose lives have been positively affected by her leadership. It will be presented to Judith at the Anniversary Party during the first week of December 2025.
